

Story starters

Cut out the cards, let your child pick one, and press record. Any story they tell is the right one.

STORY STARTER

Tell me about an animal who goes on an adventure.

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

What would happen if our house could fly?

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

Tell me a story about a monster who's scared of something silly.

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

What did your toys do while you were asleep?

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

What if you found a tiny door in the garden?

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

Tell me a story about a dragon who wants to be a baker.

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

What would happen if it snowed jelly beans?

Little Bestseller

STORY STARTER

Tell me about the bravest bug in the whole wide world.

Little Bestseller

How to record a great story

Find a quiet spot.

Turn off the TV and anything that hums.

Hold the phone close.

About a foot from their mouth is perfect.

Let them wander.

Detours and silly bits are part of the story.

Don't correct them.

Their words are the book. We tidy the ums.

Stuck? Ask one question.

"What happened next?" is all it takes.